- Members may compete in an event at NLC more than once if they have not previously placed in the top ten of that event at NLC. If a member places in the top ten of an event at NLC, they are no longer eligible to compete in that event.
- Members must be registered for the NLC and pay the national conference registration fee to participate in competitive events.
- Members must stay in an official FBLA hotel block to compete.
- Each state may submit four entries.

2024-25 Competitive Events Guidelines

Introduction to Public Speaking

- Competitors/teams are randomly assigned to sections.
- Each competitor can only compete in one individual/team event and one chapter event (American Enterprise Project, Community Service Project, Local Chapter Annual Business Report, Partnership with Business Project).
- Only competitors are allowed to plan, research, and prepare their presentations.
- Each competitor must compete in all parts of an event for award eligibility.
- Picture identification (physical or digital: driver's license, passport, state-issued identification, or school-issued identification) matching the conference nametag is required when checking in for competitive events.
- If competitors are late for their assigned presentation time, they will be allowed to compete with a five-point penalty until such time that results are finalized, or the accommodation would impact the fairness and integrity of the event.
- Some competitive events start in the morning before the Opening Session of NLC. The schedules for competitive events are displayed in the local time of the NLC location. Competitive event schedules cannot be changed.

Recognition

- The number of competitors will determine the number of winners. The maximum number of winners for each competitive event is 10.

Event Administration

- This event has two parts: preliminary presentation and final presentation
- Preliminary Presentation Information: The Speech
  - Presentation Time: 5 minutes (one-minute warning)
  - The presentation is judged at the NLC. Preliminary presentations are not open to conference attendees. The presentation will take place in a large, open area.
  - Competitors are randomly assigned to sections.
  - The speech must be developed around the topic.
  - When delivering the speech, competitors may use notes prepared before the event.
  - No other reference materials such as visual aids, props, handouts or electronic devices may be brought to or used during the event.
- Final Presentation Information
  - Presentation Time: 5 minutes (one-minute warning)
  - An equal number of top scoring competitors from each section in the preliminary round will advance to the final round. When there are more than five sections of preliminary presentations for an event, two competitors from each section will advance to the final round.
  - Final presentations may be open to conference attendees, space permitting. Finalists may not view other competitors' presentation in their event.
  - The speech must be developed around the topic.
  - When delivering the speech, competitors may use notes prepared before the event.
  - No other reference materials such as visual aids, props, handouts or electronic devices may be brought to or used during the event.
