State Leadership Conference

State Qualifier Policies

If a student would qualify for the State Leadership Conference in two events, the student's adviser must notify district leadership ASAP which event the student wishes to enter at the State Leadership Conference.

Dress Code

The FBLA National Dress Code will be in effect.

FBLA members and advisers should develop an awareness of the image one's appearance projects. The purpose of the dress code is to uphold the professional image of the association and its members and to prepare members for the business world.

Appropriate attire is required for members during competitive events.

Projecting a professional image is vital for business leaders to demonstrate respect for clients, colleagues, and others. This policy is to provide guidance for conference attendees—students, advisers, and guests. Professional business attire is required at all general sessions, competitive events, exhibits, regional meetings, workshops, and other activities unless otherwise indicated in conference materials.

Conference name badges are considered part of the dress code and must be worn at all conference functions. For safety reasons, do not wear conference badges outside of the conference area. The dress code is gender neutral.

Q: What are the rules on if a member competed in the event before?

A: The national guidelines are followed. Members may compete in an event more than once if they have not previously placed in the top ten of that event at the National Leadership Conference. If a member places in the top ten of an event at NLC, they are no longer eligible to compete in that event. This includes events that stayed the same but had a name change.

Q: Help! I've logged in and don't see a member!

A: The member isn't really a member. The membership registration and payment deadline was December 2nd. You may still register the student as an FBLA member on the national website.

Look for a button titled "E-Testing Login Cards." The button will not show up on your screen until your window opens.

Q: How long are the online tests?

A: Each test is timed and will time out after 50 minutes. If your student needs a testing accommodation, you must list it during conference registration.

Q: Can students start the test on one day and finish it on another?

A: No. Students must take the test in one sitting.

Q: What if I have several students on a team? Do they each take an individual test or do they collaboratively take one test?

A: The students will take the test individually. Team objective tests are taken individually by each team member. The scores of all team members will be averaged to determine the average team score. Any team member who does not sign in within 15 minutes of other team members and take the test will be removed from the team and prevented from advancing to the next level of competition.

Q: Where is the information on the production events?

A: The production part of four competitions (Computer Applications, Spreadsheet Applications, Word Processing) will all take place prior to the District Leadership Conference. Information about production tests will be sent out in January via email.

Colorado FBLA Code of Conduct

The purpose of the Code of Conduct is to ensure that FBLA members who attend a conference are aware of expected behavior. It is the adviser's responsibility to discuss the form with the members and stress the importance of abiding by the rules. Colorado FBLA is proud of its reputation and encourages advisers to closely monitor students at all conferences. Advisers must have a signed Code of Conduct in their possession at all FBLA activities and must submit a Certification Form certifying that all members have read and signed the Verification Form.

CONDUCT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR COLORADO FBLA

The following conduct policies reflect minimum behavioral standards for Colorado FBLA members. The policies are in effect for all delegates who are attending any Local, State or National FBLA function. The term "delegate" shall mean any FBLA member.

- Defacing of public property—any damage to or loss of property or furnishings of the properties being utilized for meeting purposes will be paid for by the individual or chapter responsible.
- Delegates shall keep their adult advisers informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times.
- Delegates will not be allowed to leave the conference site at any time without adult supervision.
- Members will be prohibited from participation without local supervision provided by the chapter or school. For the National Leadership Conference a designated local adviser or parent will be expected to accompany the participants.
- Delegates shall not use their own cars or ride in cars belonging to others during the conference unless accompanied by an adviser or other responsible adult.
- Alcoholic beverages and controlled or illegal substances (drugs) of any form are not allowed. These items must not be used or possessed at any time, or under any circumstances. Use or possession of such substances may subject the delegate to criminal prosecution.
- Use of tobacco in any form by an FBLA member is prohibited, including e-cigarettes.
- Participants will NOT be admitted to conference activities and competitive events if in violation of the dress code. Furthermore, competitors will not walk on stage during awards sessions if observed violating the dress code.
